Bias extends beyond favoritism or partiality; it is not limited to social prejudice. When left unchecked, it limits one's ability to reason and adversely affects judgment. BREAKING BIAS introduces common occurrences of limited perception (or cognitive bias) and offers an opportunity to discuss how inferences about people and situations create a subjective reality that present a threat to maintaining objectivity as a neutral. Strategies for recognizing and breaking through limiting belief systems will be discussed. About the Presenter: DAVID HARLAND ROUSSEAU is a writer, educator, and mediator.
